can't relate to you
don't know what to do
guess I'll start all over again

the fair was fine
and so was my mind
and in the morning I was lost on the country roads

hit the shit
spit in the fan
are you doing it again?

hit the road
spin the wheel
is your heart made of steal?

hey sister
can you buy me a drink?
you look like someone I wanna talk to the moon's so fine

and so is my mind
there's so many homes and they're all on fire

hit the shit
spit in the fan
are you doing it again?

spin the wheel
is your heart made of steal?

there's so many homes and they're all on fire
there's so many girls and they're all in flames there's so many boys on a heroin diet can you
can you
can you tell me your name?

spit in the fan
are you doing it again?

spin the wheel
is your heart made of steal?
