The first sun is slowly killin' the night
I hear you breathe constantly by my side
I gotta leave
Silently I wash out my coffee cup
And I wish I could ignore the hands of the clock

I gotta leave - you're still half asleep
I keep on watchin' your face
Try to remember your dream for me
And by the way

Every day you're so damn amazing
A little bit of angel - half a dream away
You're like gravity - you're holding me
So how am I supposed to leave
When you're so damn amazing
Amazing

I can't untie though I know it's just for a while
So I turn around to catch one last sleepy smile

I gotta leave - you're still half asleep
I can't stop watching your face
Try to remember your dream for me
And by the way

Every day you're so damn amazing
A little bit of angel - half a dream away
You're like gravity - you're holding me
So how am I supposed to leave
When you're so damn amazing
Amazing

Every day you're so damn amazing
A little bit of angel - half a dream away

Every day you're so damn amazing
A little bit of angel - half a dream away
You're like gravity - you're holding me
So how am I supposed to leave
When you're so damn amazing

Amazing
Amazing
Amazing
