I wanna wake up yesterday to stop the sadness in your eyes before my dreams were crept away before the rain became my ice

all the gloomy words you left behind are crawlin  $\hat{A}'$  on the backseat of my mind

I got nothin until I got you now that I know what your love can do I got nothin until I got you I guess I never knew

After all thatÂ's said and done I see the world in black and white I donÂ't how to get along when all my dreams are out of sight

somethin deep inside my soul was turnin´ down my view affection hidden down below I guess I never knew

all the gloomy words you left behind are crawlin  $\hat{A}'$  on the backseat of my mind

I got nothin´ until I got you now that I know what your love can do I got nothin´until I got you I guess I never knew Oh I never never never never nothin until I got you now that I know what your love can do I got nothin until I got you I guess I never knew

I guess I never knew yeah I guess I never knew
