White for the beginning
And red our love is spinning
Blue 'cause you're my ocean
And bright like an explosion
Purple but not rainy
And green your hope will save me
Grey for stormy weather
Who cares when we're together
Shining at the end of the sky and sometimes
Reflecting from the ground of your eyes
It makes me cry
'cause you're my rainbow love
White for the beginning
And red our love is spinning (rainbow love)
Blue 'cause you're my ocean
And bright like an explosion (my rainbow love)
Purple but not rainy
And green your hope will save me (my rainbow love)
Grey for stormy weather
Who cares when we're together
Silver for the starlight
And black for after midnight
Gold 'cause you're my sunshine
For everyday and sometimes
Pink as our sky
With a million butterflies
Yellow, red and blue
Like painted dreams of you
Shining at the end of the sky and sometimes
Reflecting from the ground of your eyes it makes me
cry
'cause you're my rainbow love
White for the beginning
And red our love is spinning (my rainbow love)
Blue 'cause you're my ocean
And bright like an explosion (oh rainbow love)
Purple but not rainy
And green your hope will save me (my rainbow love)
Grey for stormy weather
Who cares when we're together
Your eyes are blue but never gloomy
Your lips are red, come closer to me

The night is black but I don't mind
You shine so bright, I'm gonna find you everywhere
(everywhere)
'cause you're my rainbow love
White for the beginning
And red our love is spinning (rainbow love)
Blue 'cause you're my ocean
And bright like an explosion (my rainbow love)
Purple but not rainy
And green your hope will save me (my rainbow love)
Grey for stormy weather ('cause your my rain)
Who cares when we're together (my rainbow love)
Silver for the starlight
And black for after midnight
Gold 'cause you're my sunshine
For everyday and sometimes (oh rainbow love)
Pink as our sky
With a million butterflies ('cause you're my rain...)
Yellow, red and blue (my rain... my rain...)
Like painted dreams of you (my rainbow love)
White for the beginning
And red our love is spinning
Blue 'cause you're my ocean
And bright like an explosion
Purple but not rainy
And green your hope will save me (my rainbow love)
Grey for stormy weather
Who cares when were together
Silver for the starlight
And black for after midnight
