I lie awake and feel the night
A million different thoughts in mind
And everything reminds me of your face
Maybe too late to realize
The smile has left your eyes
But we shared so many dreams I can't erase
It's all about a little doubt
If you change your point of view
And so I hope that our love is in the mood
To be continued
Sometimes it's not that easy
To keep things goin' on
I know it's not that easy
But I hope that our love is in the mood
I'm sorry for the tears we cried
Sorry for the words last night
Maybe they were better left unsaid
Somehow I know we'll cure the pain
It's just a little summer rain
Let me try to get these clouds out of your head
It's all about a little doubt
If you change your point of view
And so I hope that our love is in the mood
Sometimes it's not that easy
To keep things goin' on
I know it's not that easy
But I hope that our love is in the mood
Take your time to change your mind
There's a way our love will find
I can show you let me show you
And I know you will understand
Sometimes it's not that easy
To keep things goin' on
Sometimes it's not that easy
I feel like holding on
It's all about a little doubt
If you change your point of view
And so I hope that our love is in the mood
