I see through strangers eyes an ocean full of questions in my mind searchin' deep underneath in my soul for somethin in another time now I'm driftin' out of sight and I'm longin' for the light see my destiny is sinkin' divin' deep into the night

I'm underwater
gettin' deeper lookin' out for the ground I'm underwater
floatin' weightless and I won't turn around I'm underwater

I never missed the see until the ocean had run dry every light has it's own time to shine I see my life just passin' by I'm slidin' through the ocean while I'm listenin' to the silence inside
