I'm half a dream away when it's all too bad you can count on that in the darkest place there'll be always a trace drive down this windin' street when you go for broke i just wish and hope that the luck you seek is the luck that you need uuuuuhh when things just fall apart uuuuuhh when any cure is hard to find just keep in mind

all the time there's a guidin' light
and it's not gonna fade
at your side forevermore
watchin' over your way
through the night
and the desperate days
at the end of a shade
there's a light forever and ever
and ever and ever to stay

try - try to fight the cold when surrender's near something will appear waitin' at the road to help you carry the load

it's there whatever you do watchin' over you
