"So you think you've got what it takes?
I know better"

You, live in a perfect dream
Boy, nothing is what it seems
Faking beauty acting like a star
Hoping that good looks will take you far

Hey, mister drama
On top of the world
You would sell your mama
For diamonds and pearls
Hey, mister drama
You're stealing the scene
Such a bad karma
You're a drama queen

Boy, trying to be extreme
Vain, might even kill your dream
Thinking lies will beautify your name
Sleeping with them all to reach the fame

Hey, mister drama
On top of the world
You would sell your mama
For diamonds and pearls
Hey, mister drama
You're stealing the scene
Such a bad karma
You're a drama queen

Please, mister drama
Step down from your throne
If you do what you wanna
You'll die all alone
You, mister drama
Right up on the screen
In front the camera
You're a drama queen

"Oh, my God! You're such a drama queen."

Hey, mister drama
On top of the world
You would sell your mama
For diamonds and pearls
Hey, mister drama
You're stealing the scene
You're such a bad karma
You're a drama queen

Hey, mister drama
On top of the world
You would sell your mama
For diamonds and pearls
Hey, mister drama
You're stealing the scene
Such a bad karma
You're a drama queen

Please, mister drama
Step down from your throne
If you do what you wanna
You'll die all alone
You're a drama queen
Drama queen
