Your fire a flickering rage
Love just a burning malaise
Smouldering Away
No response
Plain hate

Feelings smothered with wealth
Wealth a suffocating death
Slow but every breath
Insatiable but very loyal

Was it worth all the wait
Years despise and self hate
Finally you got your prize
Just after losing all worthwhile

Your soul a sculpture of blood
Stench of iron never loved
Frozen by the night side
The extended night of your life
