We are drifting away
Follow everyday
Soon we'll have nothing to say

We'll be too far away
We'll be too far away
Too far away

From where we started today
Where we started today
We'll be too far away
'Cause we are drifting
Farther everyday

Well, I will remember
Even if I'm drifting far away
But I will remember
Even if I'm fading all away

Oh, I dip my hands into the sea
Oh, I
(Want)
Pour the ocean over me

And after all their tide have swallowed
All the shore, I couldn't find you anymore

All great drifters
They smile the great drifters
But it's more look great drifters
We are drifters away
We are drifters away
