

Black Raven "Once Again"

Visit "Once Again" on MotoLyrics.com

Crying eyes without a tear
Nothing 'round us but that fear
If that's the way it has to be
I won't chain you - feel free

Sure, sometimes we did things wrong
But I thought our love was strong
Now's the end, (and) now it's real
Time's broken my ideal

Once again I'll find myself alone
Once again it's time to move on
When first sunrays kiss your cheek
I'll be gone

While I'm away, be sure you try
To forget me by and by
As soon as I have left your mind
There's a new love that you'll find

Once again I'll find myself alone
Once again it's time to move on
When first sunrays kiss your cheek
I'll be gone

Time will dry all tears we cry
And our hope won't let us die
We'll be free and far apart
Every end means a new start
