Alone again in Paris
Travel drained I write to you
You've been on my mind
Cold days, long nights

A rooftop in Berlin I call
Confess the state I'm in
These cities, this view
I see nothing without you

And I can do this alone
But we can do this so much better
Together, together, together

And I can make it alone
But we can make it so much better
Together, together, together, together

London Bridge, the rain at last
Back in these arms again
I'm sorry I hurt you
I hurt me too

Forgive my jealousy
That's not the man I long to be
By your side my whole life
True love knows no sacrifice

And I can do this alone
But we can do this so much better
Together, together, together

And I can make it alone
We can make it so much better
Together, together, together, together

Together

Together

I put my honor in waste
Pull you closer and embrace

So divided we fall
But stronger we stand

Together
Together
Together
Together
Together
