Wind in the wires
It's the sigh of wild electricity
I'm on the edge of a cliff
Surpassing
Comfort and security

But here comes a gale
A crippling anger
Sea birds are blown
Into the rocks
Grace is lost to thunder

Thunder
Pressure
Getting Lower

But see her waters break
Rain falling to the sea
Into a granite wave

A unit
A family

It's just a sigh
Just a sigh

This wild electricity
Made static by industry
Like a bird in an aviary
Singing to the sky
Just singing to be free

To be free
