Without some kind of suffering we are nothing,
Without some kind of suffering we bring it on ourselves,
Your world can seem to change like lightning,
In a flash of fire eyes can catch you unprepared,

I wish that I could change it,
Forget or re-arrange it,

I waited for the sun,
To warm me,
And I have just begun,
To realise,
I waited for too long,
And you've already gone,

Sometimes I sit and wonder,
I go under,
Living in the past is to stay,
And I'd rather just move on,

I wish that I could change it,
Forget or re-arrange it,
But I'm a thousand miles away,
My hearts lost it's way,

I waited for the sun,
To warm me,
And I have just begun,
To realise,
I waited for too long
