It's no secret that I'm a fuckin' loser.
It's no mystery that I'm done with life.
My life is trouble.
Trouble is my life.
But please trust me I'm not bare-headed.

With sand on my feet I'm on my way through the cold
water.

I lost the most precious things in my life.
If I could choose the sides I would be on the right one.
I'm on the right side.
I'm on the right side.
ON THE RIGHT SIDE!

With sand on my feet I'm on my way through the cold
water.
ON MY WAY
I'm leaving the past with the sun on my skin.

Now back in life.
Tired and empty.
With the truth in my heart I can fly like a sparrow.
These scars will remain but I'm starting a new period of life.
This is what keeps me breathing.
Always searching for some light.

With sand on my feet I'm on my way through the cold
water.
ON MY WAY
I'm leaving the past with the sun on my skin.

These are the hardest parts.
These are the moments I'm alive.
Always searchin for some light.
ALWAYS SEARCHING
