Pure heart
I love you

Pure heart
You're super cool
You're live and elemental
You're sweet and you're true
You're so true
Oo-ooo-oo-ooo
You're plain and yet so special
It's nuttin' like you

You're so cool
You're sweet and rude
You're so plain that it's special
It's nuttin' like you
Well, aww hoo
oo-oooo-oo-ooo
You make me stand up, and holla "do the hoochie
coo!"
You're so cool

They told me pain only shows you where you goin
You get to laugh then that shows you where you been
And when you get the cash that only shows you how to sin
like when you gettin fast money and you blow it in the wind
Where we from success, one in a million
We thought success was getting money in front the buildin'
End of the summer we was countin up the killins,
like they killed baby boy trynna run up in the buildin,
now
Love
I bruised one of her rose petals
She was from the concrete and came up out the cold ghetto
But so gentle
But it appears, like, on a clear light it could thunderstorm

Want some more
La, La, La-la-la-la-la, la, la-la-la, la-la-la-la

Oo-ooo-oo-ooo
Pure heart
I love ya, pure heart
Pure heart
Uh-ooo-oo-ooo
Ha, its nuttin' like you

You're soo
Do-doo-do-doo
You're sweet and you're rude, so cool
And fiery too
You're plain and elemental
You're sweet and you're rude

Most say I'm politically incorrect
But most people scared, they spit it so indirect been accused of, same thing as you but, I refused ta, follow rules of who
The complexion of politics done changed and the computer glitch put so many problems up in the game that uh
I prolly still be sellin 'caine if I,
Didn't get a chance at the stardom or the fame
Bein' humble is a hard quality to achieve
When your ego is crazy with no modesty
We make good music just usin the black keys,
And Im flyin through the hood in my newest of black Vs
Peace

Wahoo-oo-ooo
Ain't nuttin' like you
You're pure heart
