Blue memories,
Are haunting me, it seems,
My lover has gone;
In my dreams,
The blues keep haunting me,
My nights are dreary and long.
I want you to remember
As life goes on,
There'll never be another
To right your wrong,
Deep mystery
Of long-lost love, it seems,
Are my blue memories!
I want you to remember
As life goes on,
There'll never be another
To right your wrong,
Deep mystery
Of long-lost love, it seems,
Are my blue memories!
