"Safe Distance"

Why can't you see it?
That it's not a waste of time
I'm shot in a battle, I know
It can be right I won't lose this fight
I'll keep on trying away

Why can't I just keep it all?
Take a chance with me
So far, I feel it's fostered
As long that you stay the same

I feel like I've been down this road
Towards this path of broken feelings
And now I've come to appreciate the fact
That the worst is caring at all

It's not I don't feel the same
Long shots prove hard to find
You leave much to handle - your lies

Trust your feelings
Untapped due to pride
Do you follow?
Trapped beneath your lies again
