Oh singer, sing me an old song, yeah
Oh singer, sing me an old song, sing me an old song
about cotton place
Tell me how the good earth feels down in the high
white cotton, yeah
'Cause in my life, I'll never get to walk on my knees in the fields.

Oh singer, sing about the railroad
Sing about the coal shovellin' on the L and I rail Let me get a ride afar with all the people in the depot
'Cause in my life singer, I'll never ride those coal black trains.

Take me back, oh, singer take me back
I'm livin' a life I can't slow down 'cept with a song
And I wanna know how the people make it without big corporations
And I wanna feel how the people live when life is old.

Oh singer, take me to the river
Let me ride the big river boat down to New Orleans Let me lean up aboard and wash my hands in the Mississippi water
'Cause singer, I can only ride that boat in a song you sing.

Take me back, oh, singer take me back
I'm livin' a life I can't slow down 'cept with a song
And I wanna know how the people make it without big
corporations
And I wanna feel how the people live when life is old.

Oh singer sing me an old song, yeah
Oh singer, sing me an old song, sing me an old song
about cotton place
Tell me how the good earth feels down in the high
white cotton, yeah

'Cause in my life, I'll never get to walk on my knees in
the fields.

In the fields...
