"The Days That I Wished"

Visit "The Days That I Wished" on MotoLyrics.com

Sorry Iâ€™m late, the days that I wished
Are gone forever
A smile, a lie, a cloud or a dream
A start or an end?

Look at the line
On the edge of your soul
You can see it's end

Look at the night
On the edge of your thoughts
You can see it blends

Since the day we fell in love in this lounge
We took the same turn
But if I am not the one that you want
No panic, no hurt

This time we shared,
Nobody can feel
Nobody can steal
Forget the truth, forget the answers
Nobody's got them

If we bleed, if we shout
It's just to fill this void
All around us
