"La Passionaria"

A red star shining
Inside her heart
Bringing courage and hope
Healing battle scars

Such a noble cause
Deserves nothing but applause
Not massacres, bullets
Or bombs in the dark

It's better to die standing up
Than to live on your knees
La Pasionaria

She looks like na angel
Against the setting sun
Up on the spanish hills
With a rosary and a gun

Her legend lives on
Other heroes are born
Dolores your words are still
Sung in the hills

She looks like na angel
Against the setting sun
Spanish hills
Rosary and a gun
