[Chorus]

Day by day
Just take it slow down
Day by day
Just hanging till now

Maybe I will have one day
To find myself in this world
Maybe I would like to stay Awake until the morning comes

A million ways to spend time
Is this like on tv
A million ways to be wild
To set yourself free

Chorus:

Day by day, just take it day by day now
Just take it slow down
Day by day, just take it day by day now
Just hanging till now

To proceed
It's time to close now
I think I'll have to go
Just trying to find a way back home
But there's always someone else to go

I wonder if it matters when you see me grown if is it with the world
forever

Chorus: x2

Day by day, just take it day by day now
Just take it slow down
Day by day, just take it day by day now
Just hanging till now

Day by day, if you losse a round
You can still win in the end
Just take it day by day now

Day bye day, just take it day by day now
Just take it slow down
Just hanging till now
