I'm in love again, this time I mean it, in love again, so in love again, what lies between us is discovering. This time it's forreal. I know I have said these words before. And if you're keeping score, that makes four, and the count down goes on. But this time, I sware the night is cast, I make it last for ever more, Of that I'm sure. I'm in love again, this time I mean it in love again. So in love again, what lies between us is discovering. This time it's forreal. I refuse to dwell upon the past, cause time was much to fast, take the chance. What if you run away. But I was sure. This love was meant to be. For you and me eternally, so heavenly. I'm in love again, this time I mean it, in love again, so in love again, what lies between us is discovering. This time it's forreal. It was love. I need you without a chance. Should I speak of romance, take a chance. In a twinkling it's gone. When it's come, I want it said of me, I tried to be, the best i could, I always should. I'm in love again yeah this time I mean it in love again. So in love, love again. What lies between us is discovering. I, I'm , I'm, I'm, in love I am. So, so, so, so, in love with you I am. Mmmmmm. You know you know it. You know you know it. I'm in love it's true. So in love with you. Ohh baby I can feel it in my bones. Now that i've got you I won't never be alone. Mmmmm. Said I'm in love, said i'm in love. So in ,love with you. Ohh
