All my life, I've waited, for someone like you
But the heart, I've got
Hey, hey, hey, hey
I've always been
I knew you, you will come again
All my life yes, I've waited, I've waited, I've waited
For someone like you, you, you

I've waited a lifetime
For someone just like you
Somebody who will take my hand
Someone who's warm and true

Romancing by candlelight
A touch from you, thrills my heart
Say if you love me and you feel right
Nothing can keep us apart

All my life, I've waited for someone like you
With a heart of gold
I always knew you would come my way
All my life I've waited for someone like you

From now 'til the end of time
That's how long I'll be loving you
Together we will live in paradise
A paradise made for two

All my prayers have been answered, yes indeed
And my dreams are reality
I feel complete whenever you're next to me
So I'm gonna hold on, I'll never let go

All my life I've waited for some one like you
With a heart of gold
I always knew you would come my way
All of my life I've waited for someone like

Everyday we'll make sunshine
Every night like the first time
Anything that's on your sweet mind
I'll make it happen for you and only you

I'll do anything just keep it real
And I'll do the same 'cause I love you
Ain't no shame in my game
All my life, I've waited for you

Waiting for someone like you
Waiting for someone like you
Waiting for someone like you
All my life, I've waited for someone like you
Waiting for someone like you
Waiting for someone like you
Waiting for someone like you
All my life, I've waited for someone like you

All my life, I've waited for someone like you
All my life, I've waited for some one like you
Someone like you
