I'm trying to maintain peace
Between these two worlds
Sometimes I wish I could just pull the plug
Both demand me to devote Please, hold on Nothing lasts forever I'm off this sinking boat

I was born a whore
And no one can save me
I was born a whore
And no one can blame me
I was born a whore
You should never disgrace me
I was born a whore
and nothing is free

To only make things worse,
Now I'm gone again
I am afraid I'm going lose them both
There is no point in stressing out
Listen to yourself you need to Scream and shout!

I gave up once I'll never give up again
This time I'm clean and I will not pretend
