"Free To Scream"

Visit "Free To Scream" on MotoLyrics.com

Every day repeats the same
We're hunted by our name
And when the love begins to fade

I see a finger point and blame
Push as far as you can take
I taste the blood in my mouth
I'm alive

I'm free to scream
This life is running with or without I feel
The beginning of a story this is how it starts

Our journey starts again

Do we make enemies or friends?
I see our lines growing strong
We're alive

I'm free to scream
This life is running with or without I feel
The beginning of a story this is how it starts
(2x)
I'm free to scream but you save the day
I feel the beginning of a story and this is how it starts
