"Leave Me Dead"

It's getting late and I am almost home I've seen many people and they're sure seen me Long days behind us and one more to go

In and out of core and passion
Run like hell it's now or never Seasons change I never notice
Wake me up or leave me dead

I found my passion I even changed my name
I gave them everything
Sometimes not a thing
What happened yesterday doesn't matter today
I'm searching for a light to light the hight

We're alive just one time
So let's not argue tonight
We're alive just one time
Let's not fight, girl, tonight
