Hello, my saviour can you buy me a drink?
I'm in need of something very strong
How about whiskey or maybe just a beer
But make it fast (I've) been waiting for so long

Red wine, gin or vodka martini
Cosmopolitan and pink champagne
I think I'll stay up until 4 a.m.
I need a break from being sane

The storm is close
I don't need a shelter
I just wanna dive right in
I've been waiting for this day to come
Bottoms up! Play your role

Okey, my friend now can you get me the drink!
Anything, beer will do just fine
Will you please make sure that I stop in time
But not too soon or I will take it back

The storm is close
I don't need a shelter
I just wanna dive right in
I've been waiting for this day to come
Bottoms up! Play your role
