I throw myself in an open fire
I burn but I stay alive
Your accusations make me famous
I pleaded guilty of the crime

Die out!
Waiting for times to change
The time has stopped
Get away!
We're not on the same page
Rotten to the core!

You love to hate us for what we say
Just being honest - I don't care anyway
All the shooting stars spell out our name
We won't last forever just playin' the game

Die out !
Waiting for times to change
The time has stopped
Get away !
Sorry, I'm not crazed
Rotten to the core!

Sell out! and join the glamorous ball
It's 24 hrs a day
(Take a break) and it's time to fall
Now you're back in the shade
