I never worried
About the things I know
But since I noticed that she's back
I don't know where I have to go

I want to hide my
My face and tears
But it's so hard to look at you
After all those fuckin' years

You are contagious
My thoughts says please
But all I can remember was
Just go back down on your knees

You are good looking
Your thoughts are young
There was no reason to forgive
Your misplaced fornication

I can't stop to see these deadly eyes
Just give me back my lullabies

I still remember what I did
But it's hard to believe after
All those fucking years
I'm still drowning in your eyes
I'm still melting for your voice
But you left me with choice
After all those fucking years
A cold night in December
Sleeping so quiet
But your lovely little eyes
Couldn't resist me night

That was the reason
For my mischief
Stabbed you to death after all those tries
I just couldn't believe my eyes
I can't stop to see your deadly face
Oh lord put me trough all these days

I still remember what I did
But it's hard to believe after
All those fucking years
I'm still drowning in your eyes
I'm still melting for your voice
But you left me with choice
After all those fucking years

Your harmless voice stays in my head
Why can't you leave me
Please shoot me to dead

All those times I tried to put me through
Yes, it's my fault there's no reason to blame you

But you pushed me to continue

I still remember what I did
But it's hard to believe after
All those fucking years
I'm still drowning in your eyes
I'm still melting for your voice
But you left me with choice
After all those fucking years

After all those fucking years
After all those fucking years
After all those fucking years
After all those fucking years
