Do you remember the first day
Way exhausted on Monday
And all the time they didn't say
That it was good and not to late
So why did we put all our hate
In all the things that we created

Shouting names on Monday night
And you know that we are right
Shouting the things that we hate
And so it still goes on

Do you remember the first night
It was dark we needed the light
'Cause they were up into your mind
Bring out the pain that's what they say
It's just the price you have to pay
Shouting names on Thursday night
And you know that we are right
Shouting the things that we hate
And so we sing

If Eyes could fall
Will they fall inside your mind
Will they bring them back alive
It's just one thing they need to fix
And if eyes could kill
Would they shoot me in my brain
Will they take it to my veins
I'm glad to know that you're not here

Do you remember the last day
The day you tried to get away
But your thoughts told you to stay
So be first be front in line
It's not just us, it is a sign
For all the thing that they want

If Eyes could fall
Will they fall inside your mind
Will they bring them back alive
It's just one thing they need to fix

An d if eyes could kill
Would they shoot me in my brain
Will they take it to my veins
I'm glad to know that you're not here

If Eyes could fall
Will they fall inside your mind
Will they bring them back alive
It's just one thing they need to fix
An d if eyes could kill
Would they shoot me in my brain
Will they take it to my veins
I'm glad to know that you're not here

If eyes could fall
If eyes could fall
If eyes could fall
If eyes could fall
If eyes could fall
