After a while I came to know that everyone is like the rest

But I'll threat you like my friend, I'll threat you like the best

What if you never, never told me the truth
What if I ran away why you said it
It's not, that I would blame you for it
So please don't act like you're mad, you're just not good at it

All those crazy nights you're awake
Why does they mess you up it's not that it's Fun for you why wouldn't they just fuck off
And leaving you alone, turn the lights off

And what if you weren't here right now
What if we never met
Who else should have forgiven me
And even when there is no we
There will always be a you and me

Here together at this crazy place
Found each other in the biggest maze
But it's so clear after all this given signs
Baby say hello to good times

Remaining memories, are here for eternity
We're trying the best we can to forget but they will Always try to bring you back down
That's why you're here for me, you're the best in town

And what if you weren't here right now
What if we never met
Who else should have forgiven me
And even when there is no we
There will always be a you and me

Here together at this crazy place
Found each other in the biggest maze
But it's so clear after all this given signs
Baby say hello to good times

And what if you weren't here right now
And what if we didn't shared (the memories)
It's not that we should have killed ourselves Baby when there is no we
There will always be a you and me

And what if you weren't here right now
What if we never met
Who else should have forgiven me
And even when there is no we
There will always be a you and me

Here together at this crazy place
Found each other in the biggest maze
But it's so clear after all this given signs
Baby say hello to good times
