"Run You Through"

My god is anything that can take this away, that's all I Care about so leave me the fuck alone. You only block the Way to what I really want, to feel nothing at all and to Forget about you. If you think I ever gave a shit about You, you were dead fucking wrong, reach out to me, I'll Run you fucking through. Why don't you see I have no need

To dream? Don't try to set me right I'm not worth the Fight. All I am good for is amounting to nothing; all I Look forward to is a bag full of dope. If you think I Could ever give a shit about you, you were dead fucking

Wrong, I will run you through. And if you ever try to Reach out to me, I will take what you give, and I will Run you through.
