The days grow darker with my desire
Since you've left for Barcelona
Out of bloom and into the blue
Barcelona you must now surrender

Because nobody can save me
Nobody can save me but you
And I've tried so many days
And I've cried so many hours
When will you realize
That your star won't ever shine
Without me...

My weary heart is now hanging by a thread
And all the flowers forgot to bloom
Out of bloom and into the blue
Dead dark black clouds are now coming down

Oh nobody can save me
Nobody can save me but you
And I've tried so many days
And I've cried so many hours
When will you realize
That your star won't ever shine

Oh Barcelona
You must surrender
Oh Barcelona
You stole my love

The days grow darker with my desire
Since you've left for Barcelona
Out of bloom and into the blue
Oh Barcelona you must now surrender
