I can't stand this feeling any longer
How long must I wait in despair
Will these walls one day crumble down
And let your love seep into my life

I've been holding on to this dream so long
I've been holding on to this dream too long

I can't stand this pain any longer
Your mystery is now tearing me apart
Will you one day shine your light on me
Or even lie 'cause I'm running out of faith

I've been holding on to this dream so long
I've been holding on to this dream too long

Whisper to me
Words from a fairy tale
Whisper to me
Lies from a fairy tale

I can't stand this feeling any longer
Your mystery is now tearing me apart
Whisper to me
Words from a fairy tale
