Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me
He sailed at the dawning, all day I've been blue
Red sails in the sunset, I'm trusting in you

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And he goes sailing no more

Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me.

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And he goes sailing no more

Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me...
