Uhh, yeah
Aight check it out
You know the names, you know the faces
It's Blueprint right here man
That's my dog
Hold up, ha ha
Hold up, this Weightless right here look

[repeat 3X]
Lo-Fi Funk, you can find me in your trunk
Turn my volume up

Lo-Fi Funk, you can find me in your trunk
As a matter of fact, hold up, hold up

[Blueprint]
I'm from the O state, all of my cats carry they own weight
C-O-L to C-I-N had to motivate
Graduated from school, needed my own space
Bein broke ain't nothin nice, I got dough to make Ain't no time to be movin at a slow pace
Puttin myself behind the eight with my own mistakes
It only takes one break in concentration
To be behind bars, facin incarceration
So my mind's on escapin like in Shawshank
Givin the Lord thanks for days in this place where people do anything to get it, cash or credit
Crack sales or Mary Kay cosmetics
Park bench, demo links, peddle incense
Main downtown slum lords abandoned tenements
Some dudes roll through, and don't take it serious
We don't start trouble here but we will finish it
When I think long term about bein happy
My heart tells me that I gotta lead 'em at he Cats is mad cause they couldn't be astronauts
Now they touch the sky everyday with hash and pot
You name it, I been to it, seen it or been through it
Somebody in my fam already did or is doin it
Beats, rhymes, drugs or guns
Let me show you how the Midwest was won

[repeat 3X]

Lo-Fi Funk, you can find me in your trunk
Turn my volume up

Lo-Fi Funk, you can find me in your trunk
Oh no, we ain't finished yet, hold up

[Blueprint]

I hate most commercial rap and the labels that's sellin
it

Almost as much as I hate the President

What kind of world are we livin in

When you kill Martin and Malcolm, but you let this coward live

They killed Tupac, forgot about Will Smith

They killed Biggie Smalls and left us with Limp Bizkit

Like we would be too dumb to know the difference

They both knew it was comin but we didn't listen

Some people think because I rap I'm not supposed to hate

I gotta be a role model and motivate

But it's hard when you see dudes you know are fake

All you ugly rappers need to go home and comb your face

Your skin is unhappy and your teeth look nappy

The dandruff in your hair got your shirt shook badly

Your facial hair is all mangy and patchy

And your bloodshot eyes look like they got acne

You name it, I been to it, seen it or been through it

Somebody in my fam already did or is doin it

Beats, rhymes, drugs and guns

Let me show you how the Midwest was won

[repeat 2X]

Lo-Fi Funk, you can find me in your trunk
Turn my volume up

Lo-Fi Funk, you can find me in your trunk

Yeah Print, turn my volume up

Lo-Fi Funk, you can find me in your trunk...
