You're there for me
Ready to adore me
I just wanna run away
When I go out
Stickin' my big toe out
Turning myself into clay
I say one thing
Then I do another
Then I wanna change again
I don't know who planned it
It's a double standard
Going on since time began
My oh my
Don't you even try
To make sense of all you see
The devil loves a double standard
And heaven isn't selling cheap
My oh my
Don't you even try
To make sense of all you see
The devil loves a double standard
And heaven isn't selling cheap
No, no, no
