Everybody sees the same sun,
The moon and stars above
Every corner of creation
Needs to know God's love
And we who have found Him
Are called to tell the story
To every nation
For the Father's name and glory

Chorus

Take the message of redemption
To the people everywhere
Let them know they have a savior
There is hope in every prayer
Give them bread and living water
For their hunger and their thirst
Take the gospel to the ends of the earth

Everybody needs to hear it
Every heart and soul
Jesus gave His life to save us
The story must be told
But how can the world believe
The truth they've never heard?

Chorus

God loved the world so much
That He gave his only Son
That all who believe in Him
Will be saved

Chorus
