i took a minute just to stop on by down at the bar to see some friends of mine i had promised myself that tonight i'll take it easy the boys were rocking, chugging 'em down here comes a waitress so we order a round i'll just stay for one beer ya tonight i'll take it easy here we go again

down that road again
seems like every drink
seems to change a dink
to an asshole

8,9, or 10, its my round again me and my friends in the perma grins someone pours me a shot and thats when things got real crazy

i forget what i did
cause the shape i was in
made a hole in my head
where my brain used to been
and i think theres a link every drink turns a dink

(down that road agian)
(seems like every drink seems to change a dink to an asshole)

[instrumental] in the morning i open my eye my head is pounding and i feel i could die and i promise myself that tonight i'll take it easy

where my brian used to been

where my brain used to be
