Last night I caught sight of Something on the big side
Well he grabbed me for a moment
Took me on a little ride
I ain't a woman who needs a grand design
But something above was sending us some sign
Hey baby, some things are too big to ignore
I'll do everything it takes to send this ship to shore
Oh, listen baby
Everything's quiet
Something is happening
We can't deny it
Nature's askin' us to do the natural thing
So come on baby, let your freedom ring

I've been telling my pillow
I've been telling my friends, baby
Honey, you're the beginning
The middle and end
I've been telling my walls
Telling the wind, baby
I get up every morning
And tell 'em again, babe
And tell 'em again
And tell 'em again
This is just a bit bigger than a
Little red pole (?)
I don't understand what you're waiting for
Oh, listen baby
Everything's quiet
Something is happening
We can't deny it
Nature's askin' us to do the natural thing
So come on baby, let your freedom ring

My inhibitions are caving in (?)
And I'm waiting for the ???
When the ??? begin
Baby some things are too big to ignore
I'll do anything it takes to send this ship to shore
Oh, listen baby
Everything's quiet

Something is happening
We can't deny it
Nature's askin' us to do the natural thing
So come on baby, let your freedom ring
