"Blow Up"

Visit "Blow Up" on MotoLyrics.com stiff winds blew behind you sharp castles of old cool halo around you soft light from your soul blow up the rooms inside you blow up 'till you remain blow up the house that owns you blow up your face and name tall shields walked beside you mild horses in rows brave heartbeat inside you strong light from your soul blow up the lives inside you

blow up the gold that owns you blow up the sands of shame
