you left without a warning the birds of prey are swarming like in a silent movie you left without a word to me come back

come back
come back
come back
come back to me

went to a fortune teller said i'd receive a letter i thought her cards were teasing me she said that you were leaving me it's the madness

in her eyes
she's crazy like the river can't you see it in her eyes?
like the river running wild she's just a little child
like the river running wild...

all day i'm sitting wondering why how you could leave and make me cry

come back
come back
come back
come back
come back to me.
