she lives
in another land
where dreams grow from the sand and stars alone can stand
'till everything stars
shaking
the ground starts shaking
the world stars shaking baby, stop shaking

she dreams
like films of long ago like stories she's been told like legends she's been sold the stories end with shaking

in another town of pictures and of sound the hills are crumbling down down -- down
she lives
