Hey, a change is gonna come
April told me so
East is east and west is west
There's nowhere else to go

Hey, stay a while
Let the wild winds blow
Heal up by the fire
There's nowhere else to go

I'll keep a look out for you
Just keep your head down low
You keep that ticket in your pocket
There's nowhere else to go

All those high speed rides
We survived again
All those best laid plans
We'll leave to mice and men

All those damaged daydreams
Blown up in a row
All that innocence
There's nowhere else to go

Choose your footsteps well
Careful as you go
You're standing at the gates of hell

Hey, a change is gonna come
April told me so
Whippoorwill and the Ruby sun
There's nowhere else to go
