Carolina
by Patty Larkin
Carolina
Is a pretty bird
I see her in my dreams
On a mountain
Looking at the side of the world
I watch her spread her wings

Moving one step at a time
One step at a time
In my own way
I follow

Carolina
I'm going there
The morning air to breathe
In my pocket
I will keep my northern words
Let her speak to me

Moving one step at a time
One step at a time
In my own way
I follow

Carolina
Is a little girl
Who holds my hopes for me
And I wonder
Looking at the side of the world
What it is she sees

Moving one step at a time
One step at a time
In my own way
I follow
