Rear View Mirror
by Patty Larkin
I saw you
I saw you as you drove away
You checked yourself
You checked yourself in the rear view mirror
And I thought
I thought that you were looking at me

The boulevard was dressed in a jogging suit
All of those beautiful people and me and you
Cup of joe you let go of a five dollar bill
It don't make sense but some things never will My mom and dad bought a house for what he Bought that car
So we tear him apart to try to figure out
Who we are
Walk down Venice Beach with some time to kill
We don't fit in no place and we never will

I trusted you
I trusted you
Poured my heart out like a friend
But Great Garbo found out in the end
Who's who

Down at the diner the polished chrome still gleams
And they turn and stare at you like you're
A girl James Dean
Conversation so cool that you catch a chill
Where friends are fashion
And fashion is a need to fill

I trusted you
I trusted you
Poured my heart out like a friend
But Greta Garbo found out in the end
Who's who

Drop me at the corner of 5th and bonvivant
With the radio playing you can't always get what you want

I watch you drive away like it's no big deal
You won't see my wave and you never will

I trusted you
I trusted you
But Greta Garbo found out in the end
Who's who

I trusted you
I trusted you
But Greta Garbo found out in the end
Who's who
