Rescue Me

by Patty Larkin

Do you want to be a knight in shining armor

Do you want to be the one to Rescue Me

Can you read between the lines in the darkest hour

Can you read my mind

May take a little bit of time

Come and Rescue Me

My heart is locked up like a prisoner in a cold stone tower

Through the iron bars I can watch the sea

Sometimes I look into your eyes and you have the power

You can read my mind

May take a little bit of time

Come and Rescue Me

Day after day I'm alone too long

Staring at four blank walls

I can't escape and the time drags on

Then I hear your voice in the hall

You've been walking towards me out along a new horizon

Once or twice I caught your eyes as you looked at me

Hear me talking, in my voice can't you hear the siren

Can you read my mind

May take a little bit of time

Come and Rescue Me

Do you want to be a knight in shining armor

Do you want to be one to Rescue Me

Do you want to be a hero and a charmer

Can you read my mind

May take a little bit of time

Come and Rescue Me
