Traveling Alone

by Patty Larkin

traveling alone is a wonderful thing there's a little light left at the end of the day

driving to moab for the first time leaving the highway

there's a little light at the end of the day

coming up over the hill to the ocean of prairie

driving to telluride over the avalanche skyway there's a little left at the end of the day

crossing the painted desert to mesa verde
