You and Me
by Patty Larkin
you and me baby
we're impossible
who'd have thought that we could
you and me babe
we're nobody's fools
we are nothing but good
you and me babe
we're something else
who's to say we're not you and me babe when all else fails we will have what we want

this is all I wanted
all I've waited for

we fell down laughing
couldn't get out fast enough who's to say there's a right or wrong way
we don't believe in that stuff you and me took a breath of air and spit out all the dust others tire of their love affairs leave 'em there to rust

this is all I wanted
all I've waited for
all I've waited for

we know everything
and we have been everywhere you and me babe we grew a couple of wings
and flew away on a dare
you and me
in a silent room

we prayed for what we got forever after will be too soon cause we will have what we want

this is all I wanted
all I've waited for
